Anna Schallock studied law at Georg August University in Göttingen and spent a semester abroad at the Université de Poitiers in France as part of her studies.

After passing her first state examination, she gained her first professional experience as a working student at a technical consulting firm specializing in construction and architectural law.

Anna Schallock completed her legal clerkship at the Higher Regional Court of Braunschweig, including in the legal department of an international automotive and tire supplier. She further deepened her knowledge at a law firm with a specialist lawyer for construction and architectural law.

In June 2025, Anna Schallock successfully passed her second state examination.

Since October 2025, Anna Schallock has been a member of the Leinemann Partner Rechtsanwälte team in Hamburg. Her practice focuses on advising clients on private construction law.
