E-Mail: anuschka.pauly@leinemann-partner.de • Tel.: 030 - 20 64 19 - 0

Anuschka Pauly studied law at the Free University of Berlin, specialising in private international law and mediation. She completed her legal clerkship in the district of the Berlin Court of Appeal and worked in the administration of the German Bundestag, an international corporation and a major American law firm.

Early on, Anuschka Pauly worked in claim management for an international group in plant construction in China and gained experience in real estate law at a major international law firm. From 2014 to the end of 2018, Anuschka Pauly worked as a legal advisor at dena (German Energy Agency), where she was responsible for contract development, legal advice and support for complex projects in the context of the energy transition.

Anuschka Pauly has been working as a lawyer for Leinemann Partner Rechtsanwälte in Berlin since 2019. She specialises in providing construction-related advice on national and international construction projects, in particular hospitals, infrastructure, power plant, industrial and wind turbine construction. She also advises the parties involved in public procurement procedures and assists in the associated negotiations.

Anuschka Pauly represents her clients in all types of formal legal and out-of-court proceedings (including conciliation, arbitration, and mediation proceedings) as a matter of course. She also acts as adjudicator for construction disputes.
