Before commencing her studies in Halle (Saale), Dr Eva-D. Leinemann worked as a qualified banker. During her legal traineeship at the Higher Regional Court in the district of Naumburg, one of her assignments was at a legal company based in San Francisco, U.S.A.

Whilst studying law in Halle, Dr Eva-D. Leinemann also embarked upon a two-year supplementary course of studies in commercial law which she successfully completed with a Master of Laws degree in Business and Economics: “Legum magister in oeconomicis” (LL.M.oec.).

Since 2001, Dr Eva-D. Leinemann has been working as a lawyer at Leinemann Partner Rechtsanwälte in Berlin where she has been a partner since 2010. Her activities are focused on the field of procurement law where she is mainly involved in the procurement review process and the provision of support and advice to bidders and contracting parties during complex tender procedures. Dr Eva-D. Leinemann is also involved in the allocation of space for charging infrastructure. In addition, she works on litigation proceedings and advisory mandates in the private construction law sector. Dr Eva-D. Leinemann designs large-scale IPA projects and has experience negotiating alliance contracts in the partnership model for her clients.

She is also an editor of the “VergabeNews” [procurement news] information service run by the Federal Gazette, a speaker at procurement law seminars, as well as a visiting lecturer at the Berlin School of Economics and Law. Since 2022, she has also been active as a moderator, for example, for the Agency for Renewable Resources (FNR) in their seminar series on timber construction.

She was admitted to the Bar in Berlin as a registered notary in 2017. From 2021 to 2025, she was a member of the board of the Notary Chamber of Berlin.

Dr Eva-D. Leinemann is a member of both the Centrum für Deutsches und Internationales Baugrund- und Tiefbaurecht e.V. [Center for German and International Ground and Civil Engineering Rights] and the Bar Association in Berlin. She is also actively involved as a voluntary member of the executive committee of the Arbeitsgemeinschaft Anwältinnen [Consortium of Women Lawyers] as well as the Arbeitsgemeinschaft Vergaberecht [Procurement Law Working Group] sections of the German Bar Association. Furthermore, she is a board member of the Eva Leinemann Art Foundation.

Dr Eva-D. Leinemann has been listed in the JUVE Handbook as a frequently recommended lawyer in public procurement law since 2004/2005. The industry service “Legal 500 Germany” lists her - again in 2024 - as a recommended public procurement law expert. The Handelsblatt has recognized her again in 2026 as a "Best Lawyer" in Construction Law and Public Private Partnership. WirtschaftsWoche has recognized her in 2025 as a top lawyer in public procurement law.
