Kai Linnemannstöns began his law studies at the Albert-Ludwigs-Universität Freiburg im Breisgau and completed them at the Georg-August-Universität Göttingen by successfully passing the First State Examination in Law.

He completed his legal clerkship in the district of the Higher Regional Court of Hamm at the Regional Court of Münster. Kai Linnemannstöns was already able to gain his first experience in the field of private construction law and architects' liability during his legal clerkship. He completed both his legal traineeship and later his elective traineeship in departments for private construction law in medium-sized law firms in North Rhine-Westphalia. In July 2019, he successfully passed the second state law examination.

Kai Linnemannstöns joined Leinemann Partner Rechtsanwälte at the Hamburg office in October 2019. He works here primarily in the area of private construction law.

In 2026 the Handelsblatt has recognized Kai Linnemannstöns as one of the “Ones to watch” in construction law.
