Merle Kammer studied law at the University of Kiel (Christian-Albrechts-Universität zu Kiel), completing her degree in 2010. Immediately afterward, she gained her first experience as an attorney at a law firm in Schleswig, where she also served as a notary representative. In 2014, Merle Kammer moved to Hamburg, both personally and professionally, working in two mid-sized advisory firms—comprising attorneys, tax advisors, and auditors—specializing in real estate law.

Since July 2022, Merle Kammer has been with Leinemann Partner Law Firm in Hamburg. Her legal practice continues to focus on real estate law, with an emphasis on private construction and architectural law as well as land contract law. She provides project-related advice to clients and represents them in court.

Merle Kammer is a member of the Hanseatic Bar Association in Hamburg.
