Sonya Bücher studied law at the European University Viadrina. After successfully completing her first state examination, she worked as a legal assistant in a large international law firm. She then completed her legal clerkship in Potsdam, which she successfully concluded with her second state examination.

Sonya Bücher began her professional career as a lawyer in a medium-sized law firm specializing in public procurement law.

Since March 2026, Sonya Bücher has been strengthening the team at Leinemann Partner Rechtsanwälte in Berlin as a lawyer, advising clients primarily on public procurement law.
